"CLARENCE" DRAMATIC CLUB PLAY SATURDAY NIGHT

VOL. X

STORRS, CONNECTICUT, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 23, 1923

NO. 10

LARGE NUMBER WILL ATTEND THE ANNUAL FOOTBALL HOP FRIDAY NIGHT

FIRST FORMAL DANCE OF THE COLLEGE YEAR

Grand March at Nine O'clock.—Program of Nineteen Dances to be Rendered by Norman Cloutier Orchestra.—Decorating Started Early.—Orchestra to be on Platform in Middle of Floor.

As a football ending to the football season which was brought to a successful climax last Saturday with a victory over Rhode Island, over one hundred couples will attend the Football Hop in Hawley Armory Friday night. This affair has always been one of great interest on the Hill in that it is the first formal dance of the year but this season it will have more significance as the Aggies have downed their ancient rivals for the first time in four years and enthusiasm will run high when Friday night rolls in, bringing with it numerous alumni and guests for the festive occasion.

Arrangements Made

Final arrangements for the event have been completed and everything will be in readiness when the orchestra takes its post for the preliminary concert which will last from eight-thirty to nine. Promptly as the chimes boom out the hour of nine, Lawrence Castiglione with his fair partner will lead the grand march followed by throngs of brilliantly clad women and their escorts in evening dress. After a triumphal march around the spacious Armory, the procession will pass through the receiving line where President and Mrs. C. L. Beach, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Dole, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Guyer and Dr. and Mrs. E. W. Sinnott will do the honors.

Four Moonlights

Following the grand march the synopators will "do their stuff" for a program of nineteen numbers, which will include four moonlight dances, during which the rays from old luna will be augmented by an understudy mounted on the running track.

Advance dope seems to indicate that the decorations will be better and more unique than have been seen on the Hill for some time. The decorating committee has already started work on the overhead effects and various youths with creased brows are already marshalling their cohorts and material for the erecting of the fraternity boxes on Thursday night.

Although the number who will attend this year is somewhat smaller than that of previous years, the enthusiasm, particularly by members of the upper classes, has not been equalled in many seasons and there is no doubt that Friday night will see one of Coach Dole's fighting eleven ended the season with a 7 to 0 victory at Kingston last Saturday. "Red" O'Neil and his teammates carried Rhode Island away in all departments of the game, from the first whistle until the game was over, the Kingstonsians were outplayed and never dangerous to the Nutmeggers.

Rhody Can't Gain

Rhode Island took the ball on the kickoff and spread out in their favorite formation, but were unable to pierce the Aggie stonewall. They were forced to kick, and Connecticut received it on the 40 yard line. The first half was a series of futile attempts at the Connecticut line, and a regular fourth down kick by Rhode Island.

Early in the first period the Aggies received the ball on the 50 yard line and started a march down the field which brought them within scoring distance of the goal. Moreland then sprung a forward pass which was unsuccessful, and the ball passed to Rhode Island on the 20 yard line.

Four Straight Passes in a Row

With but three minutes to play in the first half, the Aggies unlimbered their aerial attack and were in scoring distance of the goal when the whistle blew, having completed five successive first downs. Time proved the factor here, and the half ended without a score. At this time, of five successive attempts at passes, four were completed.

Donahue Scores

Early in the second half the Blue and White eleven started the boring offensive which brought in the winning touchdown. With steady line plunging by Swem, Purple, and Donahue, the ball was carried to the 2-yard mark. In a final line buck by Donahue the ball was taken over the goal line for the one touchdown of the game. Eddy made the kick.

At this point Rhode Island started a frenzied offensive. Captain Tom Kirby made numerous heroic tries to even up the score but was unable to do so. Time after time he encircled the Aggie ends, but the Aggie backs met him before he could get away. A second score for Connecticut was imminent twice during the third and fourth quarters. Twice the Aggie Ag. Club Barnwarming Promises to be Something Different in Dance Line on Hill.

Plans for the first annual barnwarming are being made, and already the student body is evincing much interest in this new event. It is to be of a similar nature to the Harvest Dance held in connection with the Ag Fair two years ago.

Harvest King and Queen

One of the features of the evening will be the crowning of the Harvest King and Queen, by a member of the faculty. These are to be elected by popular vote, and a flashlight picture of the ceremony will be taken. It is expected that this will be available for the Sunday papers as well as the 1924 Nutmeg. The awards will go to the prettiest girl with the best costume in the case of the queen, while make-up alone will decide her partner. Votes will be written on a section of the ticket reserved for that purpose, and will be collected shortly after the Grand March. The tickets will also contain a series of numbers each of which will entitle the purchaser to some kind of refreshment. Popcorn, hot dogs, marshmallows, ice cream and sweet cider will be

SPECIAL TRAIN CROWDED

Horseplay in Evidence on Return Trip.—Big Parade in New London.—Cops and Trainmen Tolerant.

Impressions of Connecticut's fourth organized trip to Rhode Island on the day of the annual football classic as they occurred to a member of the "Campus" staff, are given here: Jumped the train at Willimantic, with several others. Singing in the station; other travelers shocked, amused, or resigned to their fate. Big crowd on Special, which had boarded it at Eagleville. Co-eds in festive mood; male studes in many moods; profs trying to look it.

The arrival at Kingston. "This is our year!" thinks the crowd. Cars waiting for the co-eds; many men decide they are co-eds. March to college. Wake the place up. Buy tickets; file into mess-shack. No hat losses reported. Bets placed; many boys exceeding nervous during game, especially when Tweedell cuts loose for 40 yards, and looks as if Rhody might score. However, ahead of our story.

At 1:45 hilarious peerade down Kingston Hill to the mud-flats where football grid is perched. Cars roll in. Fur coats and other kinds noted. Much slapping on back and "How in

SIDELINES

After four years—the deluge!

"Let's hear you yell" shouted a Rhody cheer-leader.

"We'll yell after we've made a touchdown", was the reply. And we did.

Though the Aggie cheering section on foreign soil outcheered the Engineers as usual.

The trip down and back is one that will never be forgotten by those who made it.

We take our hats off to the New London cops. We never knew policemen to be so tolerant. The boys woke the old town up, all right.

The New London 5 and 10 cent store did a big business in tinsel, earrings, necklaces, candles, and other stuff.

No star can be singled out in the game. The entire team played great football, and worked with the precision of a well-drilled machine.

Great credit must be given the Rhody eleven for its grit. Most of the time the ball was well into Rhode Island territory, and yet the Hilltop Hellcats only scored once.

What more do we want? We won our three biggest games: Varsity beat Rhody 7-0; Trinity 13-0; and the Frosh beat Rhody Frosh 3-0.

THIRTY-FIVE FROSH FOR BASKETBALL

Several Promising Candidates appear for '26 Quintet.—Games Schemled with Harvard and Brown Frosh.

Thirty-five freshmen reported to Coach L. A. Alexander at Hawley Armory Monday afternoon for the first basketball practice of the season. The squad did not look promising as a whole but it is expected that around such men as Andrews, Reeves, Palmer and Scofield, a winning team will be built up by Coach Alexander. A hard and busy season is in store for the freshmen, as games with Harvard and Brown freshmen as well as smaller college teams have been scheduled.

The men who reported for practice this week are: Andrews, Ajello, Atwood, Bunis, Boardman, Clark, Cole-desky, Chapman, Daley, Flaxman, Glazer, Husted, Hopkins, Lane, Loreson, Mernstein, Morgan, Multhrop, Palmer, Peterson, Rubin, Reeves, Ryan, Smith, Shields, Scofield, Sturgis, Smithwick and Sullivan.

CAMPUS PHILOSOPHER

Once a year the Philosopher crosses out the date for the Football Hop on his calendar, and slashes out the weekly column.

Again he extends the glad hand to all the guests who are attending the dance.

But asks them not to believe everything they hear.

It's a long leg that has no boot-legger.

Since the penalty system for cuts went into effect, the biggest criminal on earth, outside of the frosh who steals your co-ed, is the brother who filches your alarm clock.

TRANSPOSITION

We care not for your sherry wine;
We care not for champagne divine—
All we want is co-eds;
Three co-eds, and the world is mine.

The worst part of the swimming pool is that it's never open when the co-eds are in.

However, from glimpses we have glimpsed, Annette Kellerman has rivals.

Our friend, the "Konn Komicist", writing in the Connecticut Alumnus, after stating the well-known fact that the C. P. rips a leaf from his dairy to include in his column each week, adds that if the Komicist did likewise, he might get fired.

The K. K. probably figures that the C. P. is safe, since his pay check has not arrived for several months.

—CP—

We wonder if the publicity other colleges are giving our new cut system in their newspapers is due to the fact that it is a backward step?

Princeton has recently abolished compulsory attendance at classes, and the "New Student" draws the inference that profs will have to make their lectures more interesting more of the time.

Seriously, is it fair to hit hardest those men who are giving their heart and soul to the college in student activities?

We say, "No!"—The Safety Valve is open.

—CP—

The "Konn Komicist" gives a list of suggested names for Aggie athletic teams. We favor the "Hilltop Hellcats", if the name does not shock the co-eds. "Hellcats" connotes battling

WELCOME TO YE—FAIR VISITORS

The "Campus" takes great pride in knowing that it is the only official medium by which the college, as a whole, may welcome the incoming visitors to Connecticut social functions; because it really is an honor, inasmuch as it happens only three or four times during the college year.

We hope you like the dance, the play and everything on the Hill. We think there's no place like Connecticut and we hope you will share our opinion.

It's going to be a big week-end because we beat Rhode Island.

THE FOOTBALL SEASON

The victory over Rhode Island last Saturday closed one of the most successful football seasons in the history of Connecticut. While the number of victories is one less than that of those lost, judgment on that foundation is not to be considered when all factors are taken into consideration.

With the one year rule in force, Coach Dole took charge and formed an eleven from a scarcity of material which has not been equaled in the later years of football on the Hill. This team has worked hard and faithfully throughout the year in spite of many adverse conditions and accomplished, last Saturday, what three Aggie elevens before it have desperately tried to achieve.

Too much credit cannot be given to Coach Dole and the members of the squad who have gone through the season which has just ended. They have gone out and done their utmost for the college and every Connecticut alumnus or undergraduate is justly proud of their record.

The Rhode Island game will go into history as being one of the hardest fought contests which has yet taken place between the two colleges. However, Connecticut took the field with a determination to win and this spirit could not be denied by the "Rhody" team despite their utmost efforts. The work of the Aggie machine was beautiful to watch and, as a result, the Blue and White waved triumphantly over Kingston on Saturday night.

Every one is satisfied and the seniors will no longer say that never have they seen a victory over our ancient and honored rival, Rhode Island.

Here's to Coach Dole, Captain O'Neil and his fighting team.

JOHN CLARK SPEAKS TO AG CLUB ON HERD MANAGEMENT

John Clark, manager of Mixter Farms, delivered an interesting talk on herd management at the Agricultural Club meeting on Thursday night, November 8. Mixter Farms are well known in dairy circles, having one of the largest Guernsey herds in the world.

A very good description of methods used and experience gained at Mixter in herd management was included in the address. Mr. Clark said, "The best herdsmen learn their cattle; that is, their individual likes and dislikes; and careful handling, feeding and observing is essential in successful herd-manship."

Following the talk, R. E. Wing, acting chairman, announced that the Barn Warming would probably take place on December 8.

CONNECTICUT ALPHA INSTALLED AS 85th CHAPTER OF PI KAPPA DELTA.

Pi Kappa Delta, national forensic fraternity, installed the Conn. Alpha as its eighty-fifth chapter; at the college, Saturday, November 10.

Mr. Leon E. Hickman, of Iowa Delta, now a student at the Harvard Law School, acted as installing officer. The members of the fraternity attended the football game on Gardner Dow field in a body.

The installation of the chapter and initiation of membs was held at 6:30 in the Faculty Club Room. Guests present were: Prof. Willard Wattles; Prof. A. W. Manchester, and Prof. H. A. Seckerson.

Following this, the members of the fraternity, the three faculty members named above, and the members of the freshman debating team went to the Mary Anna in Willimantic, where the installation banquet was held.

Speeches were made by E. I. Collins, president, Dr. Henry K. Denlinger, toastmaster, Leon P. Hickman, A. W. Manchester, Willard Wattles, H. A. Seckerson, C. D. Christoph, Oscar D'Esopo, W. A. Hutton and L. A. Loeb.

Dr. L. C. Dunn, Experiment Station Geneticist, will address the "Ag" Club in Main 7, Thursday evening, at 7:30 p.m. This is a chance for all of Dr. Sinnott's geneticists to get an extra light on the why, when and where of present problems.

LEROY M. CHAPMAN BECOMES COUNTY AGENT

R. E. Johnson, '22, to Assume Duties of Assistant Dairyman of Experiment Station Staff.

Recently, Leroy M. Chapman, former Assistant Dairy Husbandman of the Experiment Station Staff was appointed county agent leader of Fairfield County; and R. E. Johnson, '22, succeeds him. Chapman graduated from C. A. C. in 1917 and became a herdsman until appointed to the Experiment Station staff.

While here Chapman was also assistant instructor in dairy production, and carried on much of the experiment work undertaken by the station. He succeeds Charles D. Clark, former county agent and will have one of the largest counties in the state for his field. Fairfield County includes Bridgeport and Danbury, and has one of the largest dairy sections in the state.

"Bob" Johnson has been active in securing a good foundation in dairy production since getting his B.S. here in 1922. He received his M.S. degree for graduate work in dairy at the Iowa State College in 1923. Upon returning east he fitted and managed the showing of the Bridgeport City Farm Herd on the fair circuit, winning at Charter Oak, Eastern States Exposition and the National Dairy Show. "Bob" was also manager of the Connecticut State Holstein herd at the National which placed second to Canada only. He will replace Chapman on the Experiment Station staff and do the advanced registry work.

MONTEITH ART SOCIETY STARTS ACTIVITIES

A business meeting of the Monteith Art Society was held on Monday, November 19, at 7 o'clock at Holcomb Hall. Several of the old members were present and old business was taken up. The constitution was read by the temporary chairman, Margaret Hall, and officers for the coming year were elected. They are as follows: President, Margaret Hall; vice-president, Cora Lavalee; secretary-treasurer, Sadie Palton. An interesting program for the coming year has been promised.

LARGE CROWD OUT FOR "GO-TO-CHURCH-SUNDAY"

One of the largest crowds the church has held in recent years jammed the building to attend the "Go-to-Church-Sunday" services held there Armistice Day.

Rev. Marshall Dawson preached a short and impassioned sermon, stating that Armistice Day first meant an exclamation point, then a period, but now a question mark. He further stated that it was not now a question in this world of whether democracy was to continue, but whether civilization itself was to carry on.

DATES ANNOUNCED FOR ANNUAL PIG ROAST

THREE DAY PERIOD

December 13—15 is Time Allotted by Student Senate for Frosh-Soph Contest.—Few Changes in Rules From Last Year.

The Student Senate has announced the date and rules for the second performance of the freshman pig roast which will take place this year between the dates of December 13—15. The rules for the roast, which were posted early this week, differ in only two respects from those which governed the affair last year.

The most important change is that the time for the affair has been shortened from a week to three days. In making this change the Senate believes that the interest in the roast will be all the more intense and at the same time the change will do away with a long drawn out affair in which interest flags toward the end. In previous years, almost without exception, altho a week has been allotted for an event of this kind, the climax has always come after two or three days. The members of the Senate do not believe that by reducing the length of the affair to three that they are damaging the chances for success on either side.

Owing to the fact that many men have lost hours of classes in past years in that they were held prisoner by the opposing side, a new ruling has been made this year which states that no man may be detained in any manner which shall prevent him from attending classes. This ruling should be of great advantage to both classes in that no man need to fear that he will lose credit by being held in confinement.

Last year was the first time that the pig roast was held and the Sophomores were successful in capturing the porker from the frosh by a surprise attack on the fourth night of the contest. Both sides worked hard to win the affair and it was only by superior strategy that the sophomores were able to win.

Altho the date set for the affair is several weeks off both classes are preparing for the big event and all indications are that much of interest will take place on the days of December 13—15.

Rules Governing the Freshman-Sophomore Pig Roast

1. The pig roast shall be held between the days of December 13 to December 15 inclusive.
2. A pig weighing at least 50 pounds (dressed weight) subject to change by the Student Senate if the entering class is small, shall be provided by the freshmen. Should the roast be judged a success for the freshmen, the sophomore class treasurer shall forfeit to the freshman class treasurer within thirty days an amount equal to the initial cost of the pig.
3. The affair shall be limited to the male members of the two under-classes. There shall be no interference.

H—L are You!" as grads and studes connect. Vanity cases swing into action.

The teams trot out. Vocal organs vibrate. Singing begins. Rhody defiant; Connecticut confident—not too much so. After telling cops who they are, reporters take possession of press bench. Cigarettes are lit; nothing else. If man is smoking on sidelines—reporter—infallible rule.

They're almost ready—a dray day—chill—shifting, uneasy crowds—flashes of cheers—two peppy yell-leaders cavorting in front of Rhody's stands—a barking "cut" in the "Regular Connecticut" cheer—quiet—the kickoff.

During first half Connecticut shoves ball into Rhody territory most of the time—no score. Have to hand it to the Engineers. Always fight best against Connecticut. The half. "Aggies will tear 'em up now"—consensus of opinion. They come out. They start tearing—right down the field. Touch-down! Hats in the air; co-eds pummelled; horns rumbling; the team came through. Point after touch-down secured; more pummelling, rumbling and hat-crushing.

Game progresses. Rhody does her best; scares sidelines once or twice; soon realize Rhody has met her master; begin to think of celebrating.

Game's over; Snake dance—team on shoulders—everybody happy, except Rhode Island—our turn, anyway.

The march to Kingston. Every corn-stack of unfortunate yokels en route blazes in the dusk. Crowds pours into special train; homeward trip begun. Long stop in New London. Parade; sing around monument in city square; real feeling comes when men bare their heads and sing Alma Mater for benefit of gathering throngs. First time since 1919; can't hold them. Cops don't try to. Darn good cops.

Baggage truck secured at station; blue candles lighted; speeches in order. Terrible crush on train. One car dark; others don't bother. Each loving couple married; then no one givesadam.

"Willi"—most everybody out—enough has been written. Use your imagination.

THE THREE SUITORS

"I crave your hand in marriage, Patricia," said Cyril, the clubman. "I can offer you a mansion, a limousine, a yacht, and a comfortable fortune."

"No, Cyril," she said. "Go roll your hoops up another alley."

"I want you to be my partner for life, darling," begged Paul, the handsome young lawyer. "With your help, I could work up to a high office."

But she turned an indifferent ear to his fervid broadcasting.

"Kiss me, you little devil," growled Barney, "or I'll break your pretty neck for you."

"Oh, Barney," she sighed, "you are so wonderful." And so it was that she washed and wiped his dishes forever after.—New York Journal.

The College-Trained Dairyman

has a big advantage over the self-educated one in that he has learned feed values thoroughly before being obliged to risk a cent on uncertain feeds.

At college you have been taught, or will be taught, the milk-making properties of corn gluten feed and corn gluten meal. When you leave college and start milking your own cows you can build up a safe, productive ration right at the start, with none of the costly and profitless experimenting that many a self-educated farmer has undergone.

With BUFFALO CORN GLUTEN FEED or DIAMOND CORN GLUTEN MEAL as the protein basis of your grain ration you are sure of heavy milk yields without sacrifice of health.

"CLARENCE" COMING SATURDAY NIGHT

PLAY BEGINS 8:15 SHARP

Football Hop Guests Have Chance to See First Dramatic Club Offering of Year.

There is every reason to believe that "Clarence," the football hop play, which will be given this Saturday evening, will be one of the most interesting ever put on by the Dramatic Club.

M. J. Farrell has been coaching the play and the result is evident in all parts. The action of "Clarence" is swift and the situations are exceedingly humorous. It is a type of play that should suit everyone.

New Players

There are a number of new players in the cast. Miss Irene Ellis, as "Cora", portrays well the "flapper" of post-war days. Miss Florence
Tenney does "Miss Pinney" with ease.
Edward Kelley and Francis O'Connor are two freshmen who have developed their characterizations to a high degree.

The show has acquired newly-painted scenery which will add much to the presentation. The freshman orchestra will play between acts and for the dance which will directly follow the play. This dance will last at least two hours. The play will begin promptly at 8:15.

double pass. Aggies failed to gain thru the line. Moreland kicked 47 yards, and "Jake" Dunn stopped the ball on Rhody's one yard line. Rhody's ball. Tweedell kicked to the 22 yard line from behind his own goal; Purple returned the punt four yards. Kirby got five around end. Kirby three more around end. Kirby knifed thru the line for eleven yards. Incomplete pass. L. Smith passed to Tweedell for nine yards. Tweedell made 15 yards around end. In the few remaining minutes in the gathering darkness both teams battled in mid-field, with neither being able to score.
Connecticut was content to take the defensive.

PLEDGING DATE TO BE DECEMBER 6

24 HOUR SILENCE PERIOD

Interfraternity Smoker Planned for Wednesday Night. — Interesting Program Arranged.

Pledging date for this year, as set by the Mediator, will take place at five o'clock Thursday afternoon, December 6, in Hawley Armory.

A silent period will be enforced from five o'clock December 5 until five o'clock December 6, during which time there will be absolutely no communication between freshmen and the upperclassmen. A list of those who are to receive bids will be posted on Thursday morning. All those whose names appear on the list will report in the Armory at five o'clock, when the bids will be given out.

Wednesday night there will be an inter-fraternity smoker in the Armory to which all upperclass fraternity men are invited. Professor Howard Seckerson will put on one or two one-act plays and Mr. Michael Farrell will sing. The Boxing Club will stage a bout of three two-minute rounds between "Brick" Kane and "Pinky" Chase.

machine moved to Rhode Island's 10-yard line, only to lose the ball again.

Line Strong

The Aggie line was the impregnable factor of the Nutmeg eleven. "Red" O'Neil and his linesmen broke up every play coming through the line while the Aggie backs prevented any long gains around the end. The team work of the Aggies was the important feature of the game, with Captain O'Neil, E. Eddy and Brink the outstanding players. The kicking of Moreland kept Rhode Island from nearing the Connecticut goal line on more than one occasion.

The Summary

Connecticut		Rhode Island
Brink	le	Malff
Maxson Eddy	lt	Perry
Nanfheldt	lg	Brown
O'Neil (Capt.)	c	Howard
McAllister	rg	Steers
McChesney Eddy	rt	Giffird
Dunn	re	Clark
Donahue	lhb	Twedell
Swem	rhb	Kirby
Purple	fb	Bosworth
Moreland	qb	Smith

Score: Connecticut 7, Rhode Island 0; touchdown, Donahue, field goal, Eddy; substitutions, Connecticut: Baylock for Donahue, Filmer for Baylock, Longo for Nanfheldt, Fienemann for Dunn, Bitgood for McAllister; Rhode Island, Lamb for Maliff, Howard for Brown, Lamont for Bosworth; officials, Umpire, Fradd of Springfield; Referee, Sherlock of Harvard; head linesman, Guyer of Storrs; time, 15 minute quarters.

The Maine team has an active membership of 36 and rifle shooting is recognized as a minor sport. Girls making the five highest gun groups in two-thirds of the entire matches fired receive and Old English "M" with the letters R and T superimposed and the right to wear the insignia on their sweaters.

Nine members of last year's Rifle Club at Connecticut are firing regularly and show marked improvement. In addition, beginners have every opportunity to make the team this year.

About 22 colleges have Girls' Rifle teams and Connecticut's team intends to challenge a majority of them this year as soon as it is evident that at least 15 girls can be depended on to compete.

ability, and that is a quality the blue and white has long been noted for.

—CP—

Perhaps you noticed the ball in the air, after Johnson had kicked it, in a cut on the front page of last week's "Rhode Island" issue. "Hook" Piche, who helps print this paper, stopped the press for five minutes while he tried to wash the spot off the cut last week.

After which he stated that he would change his brand.

A Page from the Philosopher's Diary
Friday, November 16

Life growth exceeding boresome as the stock of rubles dwindleth. For quick work and painless extraction where money is concerned, I fain would hand it to this college. However, money never bothereth me, as I have none. In the A.M. at 9:00 there was great rejoicing in the corridor, since our laundry case arrived, which my brother seized, making chortles of glee the while, to my extreme mortification. However, I have hopes, and perhaps may be able to get a shirt or two. Sadder even than the passing of the bank account is the lack of clean clothes with which to deck one's-self. Still, 'twas ever thus, since first Eve blushed when she lacked a clean fig-leaf and Adam was slated to call. After laboring in the Campus office during the short and wintry afternoon, did attend the great pep-festivity at the Armory in the evening. Much meaty stuff was said and the atmosphere seemed optimistic. Thereby hangeth a tale, which will be told the morrow.

—CP—

The Sentence of the Week

"The sense of the beautiful is God's best gift to the human soul."

—W. H. Hudson.

Due to the annoyance caused by people coming to the play late, the doors will close at 8:15 promptly and those not in will have to wait until the second act before they will be allowed to enter the hall.

pensed in this manner, with additional supplies for sale when the numbers have all been punched.

The costumes of the party will follow the working garb of the farmer. Overalls, smocks, blue shirts and socks to match will be the masculine attire, while the women will wear the gingham aprons, calico dresses, Dutch bonnets, or any other articles of apparel adopted by farm wives throughout the world. Hair ribbons will not be excluded from the meeting, although fear is expressed by some of the students who have already procured dates with women from the Order of the Shorn Locks.

Much Dancing

Much of the program will be devoted to dancing, including several square dances. These will be given not only because they are inseparably connected with an affair of this kind, but also to carry out the main idea of the Barnwarming, which is to break down all barriers of reserve, and create a more friendly feeling not only among the students, but between faculty and students as well.

The barnwarming is to be held in the Armory which will be redecorated in a novel manner with greenery, corn stalks, pumpkins, sunflowers, and so forth. The date of the party falls on December 8th, the night reserved for the Ag Club Fair which has been dropped for this year.

Games and entertainments in many forms will be provided both upstairs and down, with something going on all the time. The girls are lending their hearty support, and Thanksgiving promises to be a busy time with the needle and thread.
